ABOUT CAMP UNBOUND

Camp Unbound is an adults-only bookish summer camp, designed to let book lovers release their inner child and escape reality for a weekend.

Each year we host a weekend packed to the brim with activities for campers to choose from that range from traditional summer camp activities to niche bookish workshops.

At its core, Camp is for making unforgettable memories and building your community of bookish friends. We have capped this event at 200 campers, many new faces, and many returning with their friends from the previous year. If you plan to come alone, don't worry, about 50% of other campers are as well, and you will have ample opportunity to make new, lasting friendships.

Camp Unbound 2027's theme is the Royal Court. Be whisked away to the middle ages and decide your station in life.

Are you a knight? A bard? A princess?

In this realm, mythical creatures are also in existence. Guests are encouraged to dress up as much as they want and find their creative freedom and self-expression. Think about the theme as an extended renaissance festival.

There are several returning and new activities on the schedule. Do not feel pressured to attend everything, make the weekend exactly what you want
